A CLEAN MAN.

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues and fibers in every organ of the body. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and think clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood.

Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and clean, healthy flesh. It doesn't make the flabby fat of corpulency, but the firm flesh of health. It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol to inebriate or create craving for injurious stimulants.

Mr. John L. Coughenour, of Glen Savage, Somerset Co., Pa., writes: "My appetite was unusually poor, and I was as weak and nervous as though I had been starved for months. My heart kept throbbing continually and I was short of breath. Finally I wrote to you for advice and you informed me that I had indigestion and a torpid liver. I did not think your diagnosis was right, but I ordered six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' from you and began its use. After using three bottles I began to improve slowly and soon went to work, and I have been working ever since."

Constipation is the most unclean uncleanliness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

FRANCE AND VENEZUELA.

France has officially informed the United States of the action of the Venezuelan government against the French Cable Company, which she regards as high-handed and unwarranted. While insisting that diplomatic means will be exhausted in the effort to relieve the situation, it is declared that President Castro is rapidly exhausting French patience, and thereby forcing France toward the limit of diplomacy.

France has invited the attention of the American government to the Venezuelan situation because of its interests in Pan-American affairs, and in order that it may ascertain the probable course of action which this government will take against Venezuela. It is the wish of the French government to act along parallel lines as far as practicable.

These developments in the Venezuelan situation are regarded as the preliminary step toward the relief of a situation in Caracas which Europe, as well as the United States, has for sometime regarded with dissatisfaction. Early yesterday M. Jusserand, the French ambassador, sent his first secretary, M. des Portes de la Fosse, to the State Department to inform the officials there of the suit of the Venezuelan government against the French Cable Company, and of the concern which this action has caused the French government.

M. des Portes gave to Mr. Adee, the acting Secretary of State, the substance of the cablegram from Paris, and asked him about the probable line of action which this government contemplated in connection with the asphalt case, which also is in President Castro's court. It was impossible for Mr. Adee to commit the government on this point until the Venezuelan courts have acted, but he thanked the secretary for advising this government in the matter, and promised him information as soon as the government was prepared to make an announcement. As soon as the French secretary left Mr. Adee called at the War Department, where he had a long conference with Secretary Taft, who, in the absence of Secretary Hay, the acting Secretary of State is consulting in all matters of importance.

It is probable that upon the President's return from New York Mr. Jusserand, the French ambassador, will outline to him the position in which the French government finds itself as a result of President Castro's latest action and discuss generally with the President the entire situation, about which France is keenly annoyed. It is pointed out that it is the wish of the French government to settle as quietly as possible its differences with Venezuela, and, in case a French ultimatum is followed by no relief in the situation, France will have well-nigh reached the limit of diplomacy.

In view of the unfavorable conditions in Venezuela at this moment the French armored cruiser Duplex and the protected cruiser Julien de Gravierre, of 23 knots speed, which are now in the Caribbean, will be retained in that vicinity indefinitely.

Although the greater part of the North Atlantic fleet is soon to come north as far as Pensacola for target practice, an adequate contingent will remain in Dominican waters to guard American interests there, and in case of an emergency in Venezuela the fleet at Pensacola will be in easy cruising distance. It is possible that the French cruisers may touch at Pensacola during the stay there of the American fleet to obtain supplies or merely to pay a friendly visit.

EXECUTIONS IN VIRGINIA

As was stated in the Gazette, James M. Linkous, a white man, 55 years of age, was hanged in the courthouse yard at Radford yesterday for the murder of his wife and their 12-year-old adopted son, whom he killed on last Christmas Day. Linkous went to his death contending that he was innocent of the crime. This was the first hanging in Radford since the civil war, and it attracted an immense crowd to the town, but the execution was witnessed by only a few score, who gained admission by cards issued by the sheriff. This double murder was one of the foulest crimes ever committed in the Radford neighborhood. At an early hour on the morning of last Christmas Day Linkous beat his wife and adopted son to death in their home, locked the bodies in a room and, after saturating the building with kerosene, applied a match and walked to an outhouse. Asked why he did not turn in an alarm when he discovered the flames in his home, Linkous replied that he was anxious to save his chickens and hogs. The skulls of his victims were crushed in with a blunt instrument and the bodies were burned to a crisp. When the crime was discovered there was great indignation among the citizens of the little town, and open threats of lynching were made. Linkous was at once suspected. He was placed under arrest and hurried to Roanoke for safe keeping. He was later indicted for the two murders, was tried for killing his wife, convicted and sentenced to hang February 17. His attorney carried the case to the State Supreme Court of Appeals and the Governor granted a respite of 30 days. The court on last Wednesday handed down an opinion denying the writ of error. What prompted Linkous to take the lives of his wife and adopted son is not known. The home had, to all appearances, been a most happy one. Linkous was known to be a quiet, sober, inoffensive citizen. His wife was active in church and charity work and their adopted boy was the pet of the neighborhood. Linkous was a poor man, but was looked upon as being upright in all things. After the murder there were rumors that there was a woman in the case, but this has never been proven.

Robert Bowles, colored, the murderer of John A. Ruff, was hanged in the jail yard at Covington yesterday morning, at 6:38 o'clock. The execution was witnessed by less than fifty people, and passed off without a hitch. Bowles did not make a statement on the stand, but left a written confession with Sheriff Rizer, to be made public after his death. In this paper Bowles stands by his statement on the witness stand that he shot Ruff in self-defense. In less than two hours after the execution the body was on a train, en route to the university at Charlottsville. Bowles met death without a tremor and walked alone to the scaffold. There was no excitement in Covington. Bowles killed Ruff a year ago in the Chesapeake and Ohio yards at Clifton Forge. He was brakeman on a freight train on which Ruff was fireman, and one night a dispute arose between the two men, during which Bowles shot Ruff and escaped to the mountains of West Virginia, where he was captured shortly afterward. He had two trials. At the first he was sentenced to hang but secured an appeal on a legal technicality, and got a new trial, at which he was again found guilty of murder, and sentenced to be hanged March 17. An appeal to the Supreme Court for a writ of error failed, as did a petition to the governor to commute his sentence.

Like Finding Money.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest irritation, better act promply like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine on earth. At E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store; 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and by the proper treatment of these diseases a threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. There is no question whatever about this, as during the thirty years and more that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used, we have yet to learn of a single case of a cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used. It is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which has entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Sold by all druggists.

Nothing will cure Indigestion that dosen't digest the food and give the stomach a rest. It isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach—take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by all druggists.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, MAR. 18, 1905

THE announcement in the local columns of the Gazette of the proposed re-establishment in the near future of the ferry line between Alexandria and Washington will be read with considerable satisfaction by all interested in the city's commercial pursuits, as well as the entire traveling community. It has been the greatest of all desideratums, and the fact that the movement towards that end which has been in progress among representative Alexandrians for months has crystalized in the consummation of a deal by which two modern ferryboats will be running between the two cities some time during next summer, has naturally brightened all who conduct business at or near the river front. For half a year the people of both Washington and Alexandria have been seriously inconvenienced by the interruption of the ferry service. The wholesale trade between Washington and Alexandria has grown steadily in late years, and the interruption of ferry traffic between the two cities has been a serious inconvenience as well as a loss to all engaged in mercantile pursuits or manufactures. Besides these there has ever been a demand by a large portion of the traveling community upon the ferry, many preferring transportation by water, and when modern steamers shall have been put upon the line the number of passengers is sure to increase. There is another feature connected with the movement that will render traveling facilities more satisfactory. There is reason to believe that the Washington Traction Company is the corporation which will own the bulk of the stock and operate the steamers. The boats will be fast and they will doubtless be run in connection with the Washington street car service. With such an arrangement people can leave any part of Washington for Alexandria and arrive at their destination in a short time, and they can make their arrangements accordingly. The boats will aid in preventing congestion of travel and this means of transportation will eliminate many inconveniences often incident to travel between the two cities.

IN HIS SPEECH during the Santo Domingo debate in the Senate yesterday Mr. Spooner, addressing the democratic side, said:

However we may have differed about the wisdom of the acquisition of the Philippines and as to the policy to be pursued there, there is one proposition on which we will not differ, and that is, that there is no government in the world which can take from the United States in the east or in the west anything which belongs to us.

Mr. Spooner should not be too optimistic. War is as uncertain as politics and Japan, now a "world power," is near the Philippines, while the United States is ten thousand miles away. Russia has five times the population of the United States and a year ago but few people believed that Japan could successfully cope with that nation. Yet, Russia in a twelve months' war has been whipped on land and at sea by her wily adversary. The United States would be at a decided disadvantage with Japan in a war in or near the Philippines, and a war with that country is not to be courted or lightly entered into.

NOT ONLY republics but empires are ungrateful. General Kuropatkin, the old idol of the private soldier, has been dismissed and disgraced and General Linevitch, commander of the First Army, is appointed to succeed him in command of all the Russian land and sea forces operating against Japan. Kuropatkin is ordered home at once. The word disgrace, it is said, is written in large letters in the laconic imperial order gazetted, which contains not a single word of praise, and also disposes of the rumor that Kuropatkin had asked to be relieved. The Russian military annals contain no more bitter imperial rebuke. General Kuropatkin for months past has fought what many believe to be the finest army ever placed in the field, more numerous and better equipped and provisioned than his own, but he has been defeated and must bear the brunt of his defeat, though it is said by military experts that few men could have done better than he. When a man is down it human nature for others to jump upon him.

SANTO DOMINGO'S total debt, which has been the subject of prolonged debate in the Senate during the consideration of the treaty, is now placed at $33,000,000, and from reading these debates it would appear that the collection of this debt by the United States for foreign nations is the chief feature in the treaty which President Roosevelt wants this country to negotiate with Santo Domingo.

Don Emilio de Ojeda, the Spanish minister at Washington, has been appointed under secretary of foreign affairs. Senor Cologan, the Minister to Tangier, has been transferred to Washington.

The following nominations for the Illinois judgeships was sent to the Senate today: C. C. Kohlsatt, now district judge, to be nominated for circuit judge. Solomon H. Bethea, now U. S. District attorney, will be appointed district judge for the northern district. Kenesaw Landis, a brother of the two Indiana congressmen will be appointed to the new eastern district judgeship. There was a contention about the places which was settled today by Senators Hopkins and Cullom and Speaker Cannon of Illinois at a conference with the President.

Opponents of railroad rate legislation are sending out vast amounts of literature these days and some of it is giving the Interstate Commerce Commission a good deal of trouble. Although the arguments are directed against the extension of the commission's powers, the pamphlets are so designed typographically as to resemble official publications of the commission, thus making it appear as though the commission itself were arguing against the very legislation designed to make its rulings effective. Pamphlets in question are entitled "The work of the Interstate Commerce Commission" and "Interstate Commerce Brief as to Proposed New Legislation" and the commission is in receipt of many letters and postal acknowledgments of the same. Some of the pamphlets were misdirected and undeliverable and these deceived even the postoffice department, which returned them in large numbers to the commission, under the belief that they had emanated from that office. The pamphlets in question are the work of well known railroad attorneys.

Eight Utes called at the White House this afternoon to protest to the President against the opening of their reservation to white settlement. "If our home is to be invaded by the white man" cried Appa, "then, Oh White Father, send us to the mountains or to the forests where he will not follow. We do not want to live with the white man for his neighborhood is death to us all." The President told the Indians that the law had been passed and must be obeyed.

The news of Secretary Hay's collapse on taking the steamer for Naples at New York this morning was received with surprise and some alarm by his friends here by whom he was not thought to be in a serious condition. Several who saw him yesterday in Washington say he appeared to be in good health.

President Roosevelt and his party arrived in Washington from New York at 7:28 this morning.

The President today nominated as Minister to Corea, Edwin V. Morgan, of New York.

The President nominated Elliott Northcott, chairman of the republican State committee of West Virginia, as internal revenue collector of that State.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, March 18.

SENATE.

When the Senate met this morning it was with the expectation that today would be the last of the special session of the body.

Senator Teller's resolution calling upon the President for copies of all instructions sent to Minister Dawson and Commander Dillingham, relating to Dominican affairs, was taken up.

Senator Teller urged its adoption. He said that he had heard that there was great danger that Germany was about to intervine in Santo Domingo, but he declared that mere fiction. He said, he had read an interview with assistant Secretary of State Loomis, in which it was stated that imminent peril was threatening. If there was anything in that, the Senate surely ought to know more about it.

Senator Daniel also favored the adoption of the resolution saying that publicity was one of our institutions and that information was more neccessary before than after dealing with a subject.

Senator Lodge opposed the resolution, saying that the Senate ought not to ask the President for anything which it knew in advance, he must refuse in whole or in part. There were people, he said, who in such a case would not be slow to charge that he was keeping back incriminating documents, when in reality he was merely observing the ordinary decencies of international intercourse. Mr. Carmack asked Mr. Lodge whether he meant to infer that the Senate or the public would distrust the President's truthfullness and Mr. Lodge, in disclaiming any such inference, said that the opinion entertained by the public or the President had been demonstrated to forcibly to allow any such construction of his remarks.

Mr. Teller laid stress upon the fact that the President, could as so may other Presidents have done, announce that certain information in his possession could not be sent to the Senate without being incompatible with the public interest. He said that we never had had a President who was not brave enough to say that and that we had never had a Senate mean enough to criticise him for it.

After some further decision by Senators Morgan and Gorman, the motion made by Senator Cullom to refer the Teller resolution to the committee on foreign relations was adopted. Senator Cullom then moved an executive session and refused to give way to Senator Morgan's request for the consideration of the resolution of inquiry which he had offered in yesterday's session. At 1:10 the doors were closed.

At 2:10 this afternoon the Senate appointed a committee to wait upon the President and inform him that the Senate is now ready to adjourn, not having been able to reach a conclusion on the Santo Domingo treaty having no further business to transact.

A 3:39 the Senate adjourned sine die.

Army of the Potomac.

The citizens of Manassas and vicinity met Thursday to take action looking to the enactment of the society of the Army of the Potomac, which will hold its annual encampment there next May. An arrangement committee, consisting of fifteen citizens, was appointed, with Judge Charles E. Nicol chairman. Judge Nicol has called a meeting of this committee on Saturday night, March 24, at the Hotel Prince William, at which meeting General Horatio C. King is expected to be present.

News of the Day.

At Augusta, Me., articles were filed for the incorporation of the Publishers' Paper Company, with a capital stock of $6,000,000. The new company will compete with the paper trust.

Secretary and Mrs. Hay left Washington yesterday, to be absent about two months. They will sail today for Europe. Mr. Adee is acting as Secretary of State until Mr. Loomis returns from the west.

In view of the expected adjournment of the present extra session of the Senate without favorable action upon the pending Dominican treaty, it is understood that the State Department has determined to proceed with the collection of customs at Puerta Plata and Monti Cristi under the terms of the arbitration award of last year.

Emperor William dined with P. L. Bihourd, the French Ambassador, in Berlin, last night. As this is the first time since the war with France that a Prussian sovereign has eaten at the French Embassy, a certain political interest attaches to the incident, though it can only be taken as a straw indicating that the French government is willing to give and receive a significant courtesy.

Richard K. Fox, former backer of Pugilist Jake Kilrain, of Balimore, and proprietor of the Police Gazette, yesterday in New York began a suit for absolute divorce from his wife, Helen A. Fox. This fact was made public when Justice Dowling signed an order directing service to be made by publication upon Mrs. Fox. In his complaint Fox set forth that Mrs. Fox eloped with Alfred Stein, and that she is now in Europe with Stein.

THE WAR.

It is reported that the Japanese have cut the railroad communications behind the Russian army. The Japanese captured many prisoners at Tie Pass and the Russians destroyed vast stores.

General Oku's army, which stood the brunt of the fighting around Mukden, lost between 18,000 and 20,000 men and inflicted upon the Russians a loss of, including prisoners, 50,000.

Kuropatkin's forces at the beginning of the battle of Mukden consisted of over 480,000 men. His loss in killed and wounded before March 10 is estimated at 70,000.

So fierce was the fighting at Likampu, near Mukden, that both Russian and Japanese dead were piled in heaps about the streets.

General Kuropatkin, in disgrace, has left the retreating Russian army to the command of General Linevitch, his successor, and has started on his return to St. Petersburg. The new commander-in-chief has a very difficult task before him to extricate the Russian force from the enveloping movement of Marshal Oyama. Grave anxiety is felt in St. Petersburg for the safety of General Linevitch, although by this time reinforcements from Habin are thought to have given him an availing fighting force of 268,000 men. General Linevitch has been appointed to succeed General Kuropatkin, who has been dismissed in disgrace as commander-in-chief in Manchuria. The Czar's confidence in Linevitch was won by his successful repulse of 13 Japanese attacks at Mukden. His task of saving the remnant of the army is by no means easy. Lieutenant-General Linevitch is in the sixty-sixth year of his age. He was fighting in the Caucasus when he was 21; took part in the Russo-Turkish was of 1877-78, and has since then taken part in all of Russia's Asiatic campaigns. Linevitch was also prominent in relief of the legations at Peking. He is greatly beloved by the soldiers because of his constant solicitude for their welfare.

In Poland the dismissal of General Kuropatkin is interpreted to mean that the war will continue.

M. Kiriloff, the Russian war correspondent, in a criticism of the Russian army conditions, concludes that the chief cause of the reverses was the complete inactivity of the general staff.

The Russian second Pacific squadron has sailed from the vicinity of Madagascar, but its destination is unknown.

A commission has been appointed under the presidency of General Roop, a member of the Council of the Empire, to investigate the surrender of Port Arthur and act as court to determine the responsibility of General Stoessel.

A story is circulated in St. Petersburg to the effect that Emperor William advised the Czar to conclude peace and tendered his good offices, and that when M. Witte advised the Czar to accept the proffer the latter expressed displeasure.

Russia is negotiating an internal credit loan of $100,000,000 on a 5 per cent. basis.

Negotiations are on in Berlin for placing a Japanese government loan by German bankers, in which New York bankers may participate.

Art in Richmond.

Mayor McCarthy's crusade against immoral art furnishes its daily sensations in Richmond. One of the pictures which caused a Richmond jury to impose fine and imprisonment on the Richmond Art Company yesterday was a copy of Sir Frederick Leighton's masterpiece, "Psyche's Bath," which was bought by Queen Victoria and now hangs in Buckingham Palace. The appeal to the Supreme Court adds interest to the case.

Yesterday the police stopped the American Tobacco Company from hanging an advertisement representing a trapeze girl in tights, hanging head down, smoking a cigarette. The agent was referred to Mayor McCarthy, and by him to Police Justice Crutchfield. The Justice declined to render a decision, but advised the agent not to hang the picture.

Manassas to Have Electric Railway.

The indications are that the long talked of electric railway from the city of Washington to Manassas is now settled fact, and that before the close of the year the road will be in active operation. The right-of-way from Fairfax C. H., the present southern terminus of the road, to Bull Run, three miles distant from Manassas, has been secured within the past thirty days, and work upon the road-bed will begin in the near future. We understand that it is the intention of the promoters of the enterprise to run a branch line from Manassas to Leesburg, by the way of the historical Bull Run battlefields, which will open up facilities which will greatly add to the business interests of our town.—[Prince William Times.

McKeen, second steward at the Homestead Hotel, Hot Springs, was killed yesterday by W. H. Hansboro, a colored waiter. He had discharged Hansboro and had re-entered his office when Hansboro came up behind him and hit him on the head with a heavy bottle. His skull was crushed, and he died in a few hours. Hansboro escaped in the woods.

Mr. Henry S. Fitzhugh, one of the most prominent and widely known men in King George county, died at his home in the lower part of that county, Tuesday night, aged about seventy] years. He was an ex-Confederate soldier, and is survived by a son, John B. Fitzhugh, of that County, and two daughters, Mrs. Eugene Stuart, of New York city, and Miss Clarence Fitzhugh, of King George county.

The Secretary of War has notified Congressman John Lamb that the flags belonging to Virginia captured during the civil war will be sent to the Governor as soon as the records can be completed. It is said that the Governor and other State officials, attended by a military escort, will go to Washington and receive the flags from the President. It is also proposed to have an impressive demonstration when they reach Richmond.

Mr. J. Alston Cabell, who is a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, today replied to the refusal of State Chairman J. Taylor Ellyson to allow the Richmond people to settle by primary which shall make the race. Mr. Cabell claims that Mr. Ellyson misled him by silence and that he (Cabell) would not have announced himself had he known Ellyson was going to run. He concluded by saying that now he is in the race and will remain to the end.

About half of the business portion of the town of Galax, Grayson county, was destroyed by fire yesterday, resulting in a loss approximating $50,000, with probably $10,000 insurance. The fire, which is believed to have been the work of an incendiary, started on the outside of the dry goods store of J. B. Waugh & Son, and this store was destroyed. Among the other heavy losers are Ward Brothers, M. T. Blessing, Storm & Hightower, J. L. Beavers, the Red Star Hotel, H. Martin and W. G. Lowe & Co.

The Virginia State Anti-Saloon League has put the temperance question before the gubernatorial candidates now in the field in an open letter, which has been addressed to William Hodges Mann, C. A. Swanson, and Joseph E. Willard, and to C. T. Bland, J. A. Cabell, J. R. Caton, and J. Taylor Ellyson, candidates for the office of lieutenant governor. The letter is signed by Rev. James Cannon, president of the league, and requests information as to whether or not the candidates would support the "Mann bill."

Riotous Strikers.

Girl leaders have escorted hundreds of frightened strike-breakers to safety from the big clothing factories in the wholesale district of Chicago which were besieged by 400 garment-worker pickets. The employers adopted this strategy successfully when it was feared the police would be unable to prevent a serious clash between the union and non-union factions. From the workrooms of the International Tailoring Company and of Fred Kaufman, the young women marched through crowds of jeering strikers without flinching. Behind them were the men employes. After it was thought the disturbances were ended, plate glass windows valued at $500, in the offices of Lamm & Co., were shattered by strikers who sought revenge for the arrest of rioting pickets an hour earlier. Solomon Loring, Joseph Manda and Max Feldman, pickets, were arrested, after Emil Winnes, a non-union worker and watchman, employed by the firm had been beaten severely. An hour later bottles and cobble stones were hurled through the windows on the street level and much damage was caused in the interior of the place. The police assert the bottles contained acids, intended to destroy clothing material. Several shots were fired at the fleeing vandals by private watchmen, but the men escaped.

Colorado's Governor.

The bargain made by leaders of the opposing republican factions of Colorado to take the governor's chair from Alva Adams and to seat in it Lieut. Gov. Jesse F. McDonald, after permitting James H. Peabody to hold it for one day, was carried to a conclusion late yesterday afternoon.

In fulfillment of the agreement which he made before the general assembly decided the gubernatorial contest in his favor, Gov. James H. Peabody resigned the office in which he was inaugurated late Thursday afternoon. His resignation, of which W. S. Boynton, of Colorado Springs, had been custodian since Wednesday, when it was written, was filed in the office of the secretary of state at 4:20 p. m. James Cowie, secretary of state, immediately certified Gov. Peabody's resignation, and Lieut. Gov. McDonald was then sworn in as governor by Chief Justice Gabert. There was no further ceremony. Gov. Adams was ousted and Gov. Peabody installed by the general assembly about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and Gov. McDonald was sworn in before 5 p. m., yesterday. Thus in a space of less than twenty-four hours Colorado has had three governors.

Today's Telegraphic News

War in the East.

Paris, March 18.—The Japanese legation has issued an official dispatch received from Tokio, which says: "Our detachment on the right bank of the Liao river routed eight Russian squadrons with artillery which were occupying the heights north of Tieling on Thursday.

Tokio, March 18.—The evacuation of Tieling by the Russians was a great surprise to the military experts here. Considering the advantages the position offered, they believe that its surrender shows the demoralization of the Russian army. There is no place beyond offering as many advantages as Tieling and in the opinion of the experts it is doubtful if Harbin can afford an effective stand.

London, March 18.—The talk among all classes of the Japanese now is that the success against the Russians must be pushed to its utmost possibility. "On to Harbin" is the popular cry and it is heard everywhere.

The war censors are apparently at work as no word has arrived for 48 hours explaining what is transpiring in the far East. The disposition of the Russian and Japanese forces is covered with a veil completely concealing all details of the progress of the race northward to Harbin. Military experts decline to express any opinion as to whether the Russians can make Harbin safely. They say the race has only begun, and that it will probably be a fortnight before the Russians can get out of the danger zone.

St. Petersburg, March 18.—It has been formally announced that Gen. Kuropatkin has handed the command of the Russian armies over to General Linevitch, whose telegraphed the Czar accepting the office of commander in chief. General Kuropatkin reports that a force of Chunchyes has occupied Facumeg.

St. Petersburg, March 18.—The strike among the peasants is spreading in the Baltic province. A church, bank, factory and chapel were burned in that district yesterday. The strike has also been resumed at some of the factories at Lodz.

Cordova Sentenced.

New Brunswick, N. J. March 18.—Judge Strong this morning sentenced J. Frank Cordova, the deposed Methodist minister, to four years in state prison, one year for abandoning his wife and three children and three years for assaulting his wife, making four years in all. Miss Bowne was not in court, but her father and brother Edward were Cordova took the sentence without a tremor of face and was led back to jail. Lawyer H. B. Cook, for Cordova, immediately filed with the court a petition for a writ of error which stays Cordova from going to state prison until the writ is argued. The time he spends in jail here counts on his state prison term. The Supreme Court will not hear the argument until June, when they will have their next sitting. The costs will keep Cordova in prison an extra year, but what he gets off for good behaviour will equal this, so that his term will be four years in all on these two charges. Lawyer Cook, on filing the two writs of error, asked for bail. Judge Strong fixed no amount, but will decide this matter in a few days. Lawyer Cook intimated that Cordova will get bail and he will renew his motion next Wednesday. The bail will be at least $3,000.

Allegal Irish Descent.

Logansport, Ind., March 18.—The Ancient Order of Hibernians celebrated St. Patrick's Day with a banquet and public speaking. The incident of the evening was the claim by O. P. Smith, State labor organizer, in a speech, that the Japanese Generals Oyama and Oku were descendants of Irishmen, and still bore the original Irish names of their families, slightly modified. "Oyama is of Irish ancestry," said Smith, "and his name, as originally borne by his forefathers, was O'Yama. The original O'Yama whose given name was Patrick, left Ireland during the Elizabethian age for France, but was shipwrecked in the Bay of Biscay and rescued by a Spanish ship bound for the Philippines. He was taken there and cast adrift. His descendants went to Japan, and turned naturally to the career of fighting men. Inter-marriage with the natives gave them standing and position close to the Mikado, which was advanced by their activity in military affairs. General Oku's name originally was O'Keegh, who, though a military genius, was a poor hand at spelling. By imperial edict he was given permission to cut out a few letters. Thus the family name became Oku, and the sons and grandsons for many generations followed the fighting trade."

Secretary Hay's Condition.

New York, March 18.—John Hay, Secretary of State, was said to be a very sick man when he sailed for Naples on the Cretic this morning. His family came to the dock with him. Secretary Hay was very feeble and had to be supported by members of his party. He fainted once and later again collapsed and finally had to be placed in a chair and wheeled to the steamer's deck. Mrs. Hay sailed with her husband. Members of Mr. Hay's party, when questioned, said there was nothing serious with the Secretary; that he was simply a little overcome by excitement and fatigue.

When Mr. Hay reached the Cretic's deck he was taken to the suite engaged for himself and Mrs. Hay. When the ship sailed he was being attended by the ship's surgeon. The doctor said to reporters: "Mr. Hay, I think, is a very sick man. The attack was only temporary. His heart action was good, though his temperature was above the normal. He is very weak, but the sea trip will do him good." Mrs. Hay, just before the ship sailed, admitted that her husband was a very sick man. She said: "No one in Washington, except the family and possibly the Cabinet, realized how ill Mr. Hay has been for some time. This is not the first time he has collapsed, for since the severe attack of grip he had this winter, he has been very, very weak."

Off Sandy Hook the steamer signalled that Mr. Hay was much better.

Counterfeit Bonds.

Lisbon, March 18.—The Portuguese authorities have made the discovery that a large quantity of counterfeit government bonds is in circulation. Eighty thousand dollars worth of the bonds have been found in the possession of various banks. It is believed that the greater amount of the fraudulent issue has been sent abroad for disposal in foreign markets. An officer in the Portugese army has been arrested and it is reported that several distinguished personages are involved in the fraud.

Charge Against the President.

Detroit, March 18.—Professor Hugo Munsterberg, head of the psychology Department of Harvard University, friend of President Roosevelt, created a sensation at a dinner given by the Cosmopolitan Club, by assailing all Republican forms of government. He declared that President Roosevelt had told him, "I regard the Declaration of Independence as made up of glittering generalities. You will never hear me quote the Declaration of Independence." The professor asked the reporters present not to quote him on this. He was bitterly disputed by other speakers, who refused to believe that President Roosevelt had uttered such an expression.

Washington, March 18.—At the White House today the assertion of Prof. Munsterburg at Detroit that President Roosevelt had characterized the Declaration of Independent as being made up of glittering generalities was declared to be too absurd to be worth dignifying by a denial.

Women Gamblers Arrested.

Barcelona, March 18.—The police raided a fashionable women's gambling house on Aragon street yesterday, and surprised twenty women, leaders of Spanish society, playing roulette. Nine women escaped from the officers and several others were arrested. The police seized 300,000 pesetas and a quantity of valuable jewels on the tables. The governor general ordered the release of the women, to avoid a scandal, and the censor ordered the newspapers to make no mention of the raid. The police received information about the gambling house from a prominent member of the nobility whose wife lost 66,000 pesetas and a pearl necklace in twenty-four hours of play."

Fire at Art School.

New York, March 18.—The Art School of the National Academy of Design, at 109th street and Amsterdam avenue, was damaged to the extent of $50,000 by fire this morning. The principal loss was on the paintings. The entire collection in the building was valued at $700,000. While fighting the flames a ceiling fell, injuring three firemen.

Disastrous Fire.

Worcester, Mass., March 18.—Fire last night gutted the Compton block, wiping out a dozen business firms and making homeless four of the leading social and fraternal organizations in the city. Three firemen were injured by the falling of the roof. The loss is estimated at between $150,000 and $200,000.

Arabs Capture Town.

Aden, Arabia, March 18.—It is rumored that the Arabs have captured the town of Sana, in the Yemen district, which was supposed to be garrisoned by a force of 5,000 Turkish troops. The Arabs declined to accept the offer of the Turkish generals to surrender their town.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 18.—The western element was aggressively bearish on the market this morning, but traded at first on both sides of the market before resuming attacks that caused intervals of weakness yesterday. Outside of the western selling and the hammering by the room traders there was little interest in the trading in any stock.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Proceedings of the Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday were:

Michens vs. Phillips; argued by Rosewell Page for appellant and Hill Carter, and submitted.

Butler vs. The News-Leader Company; argued by Hill Carter for plaintiff in error, and E. Randolph Williams for defendent in error, and submitted.

The cases to be called are:

Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company vs. Vaughan's administratrix; Winifree vs. Jones; and Hairston vs. Danville and Western Railroad Company, being Nos. 70, 71, and 72 on argument docket.

The President in New York.

President Roosevelt yesterday went to New York to attend the one hundred and twenty-first dinner of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick and the wedding of his niece, Miss Eleanor Roosevelt, and in a speech at the former function told of the achievements of the Irsh in the United States.

Among other things he said: The immigrants form Ireland in the eighteenth century pushed bodly through the settled districts and planted themselves as the advance guard of the conquering civilization on the boarders of the Indian-haunted wilderness.

They (the Irish immigrants) furnished their full share of leadership in the great struggle which made us a nation.

In the second great crisis of our country's history—the period of the civil war—the part played by the men of Irish birth and parentage was no less striking than it had been in the Revolution.

Attacked by a Lunatic.

John White, an employe at the North American Chemical Company's plant, at Bay City, Mich., was discovered unconscious and bleeding near his work Wednesday night. On recovering consciousness he told a sensational tale of a half hour's battle with an unknown masked lunatic who attacked him with a butcher knife. White says that the masked man entered the room where he was working, and told him that he was going to kill him. He then produced a butcher knife and took after him. White jumped over large potash pans, followed by his pursuer. Three times the weapon was brought down on the fugitive, once on the fleshy part of his right leg, another time across the left arm and a third stroke cut a large hole in his cap. White finally made a dash for the door, closely pursued. The man with the mask followed him 300 yards and then disappeared in the darkness.

Virginia Hospital Boards.

Gov. Montague has named the following members of State Hospital boards for terms of six years, from March 1; S. H. Hansbrough, Western State Hospital; John G. Osborne, of Radford, Southwestern State Hospital; E. H. Clowes, of Richmond, Eastern State Hospital. James L. Alvis, of Harrisonburg, was named as a member of the State board of pharmacy for a term of five years, beginning March 1.

A Destructive Fire.

To draw the fire out of a burn, or heal a cut without leaving a scar, use Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for piles. Get the genuine. J. L. Tucker, editor of the Harmonizer, Centre, Ala., writes: "I have used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve in my family for piles, cuts and burns. It is the best salve on the market. Every family should keep it on hand." Sold by all druggists.

Death of Ex-Senator Hawley.

General Joseph R. Hawley, former United States Senator from Connecticut, died at 1:45 o'clock this morning at his home in Washington. General Hawley had been in a comatose state for several days, with slight periods of consciousness.

Joseph Roswell Hawley was born in Stewartsville, N. C., in 1826. He began the practice of law at Hartford, Conn., in 1850. The republican party of Connecticut was organized in the office of the Charter Oak, of which he was editor. He afterwards became editor of the Hartford Evening Post, the new republican paper. When the civil war broke out he recruited the first company of volunteers raised in the State—of which he took command. He saw service throughout the whole war and was mustered out in 1866 with the brevet rank of major-general. He was elected governor of Connecticut the same year. In 1872 he was elected to Congress at the end of the term, 1879-81, was sent to the United States Senate to which he was re elected 1887, 1893 and 1899.

The remains of Gen. Hawley will be sent to Hartford, Conn., on Monday for interment.

Charges Criminal Libel.

A dispatch from Denver says that charges of criminal libel against George Kindel, arising from the alleged publication and circulation by the defendant of a pamphlet in which the picture of Henry B. Hyde, founder of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, appeared between the pictures of Jesse James and "Soapy" Smith, under the title "Kindel's Famous Gallery of Characters," are embodied in three informations filed in the Criminal Court in Denver yesterday by District Attorney George Stidger. A capias was issued for Mr. Kindel and placed in the hands of a deputy sheriff. Kindel is alleged to have published the offending circular on February 20, 1905, and to have circulated it by means of the mails and otherwise, with the intention, the informations allege, of insinuating that Henry B. Hyde consorted with outlaw and confidence men. Charles W. Mills, inspector of agencies of the Equitable Society, who made the affidavits on which the informations are based, said that the prosecution was instituted after all other means had failed to induce the author of the circular to discontinue the publication of alleged defamatory insinuations regarding one who is dead.

Was Not Murdered.

The body of the young woman found in a Newark, N. J., hotel Thursday night, and supposed to have been strangled, was yesterday identified as that of Miss Mamie Dennis. She was a working girl, who lived with her relatives at Jersery City, but had not been seen by them since Wednesday morning, when she left home ostensibly to go to work. An autopsy, which was performed on her body yesterday afternoon, disclosed the fact that death resulted from natural causes. The marks on the neck, the physician found, were caused by pressure from the collar after death. The man who accompanied Miss Dennis to the hotel, and who deserted the body, appears to have been Charles Silberdorff, of Jersey City. The police say he will not be arrested, as there is no suspicion of foul play. Miss Dennis was twenty-two years old. Her identity was discovered by a detective, who submitted her shoes and described the body of the girl to the shoe dealer who had sold the shoes to her. The shoe dealer at once identified her, and the identification was confirmed by the Dennis family.

St. Patrick's Day in Old Ireland.

St. Patrick's Day was celebrated in Ireland and observed in England much as usual. The Irish flag was in evidence generally, while Irishmen and Englishmen in London fraternized and sported bunches of real or imitation shamrock, in which the street venders did a rushing business throughout the day.

In Ireland, of course, celebrations were general. In Dublin and other cities young and old, rich and poor, wore the green, and last night the private and public social functions in the capital were even more notable than usual especially brilliant being the state ball at the castle, which was attended by leading Irish families from all over the island.

Queen Alexandra gracefully recognized the day by presenting sprigs of shamrock to the entire Irish guards stationed at Chelsea Barracks.

The weather was miserable in England and generally fine in Ireland, where a few disturbances were reported, but none more serious than the usual "celebration" night.

Former President Grover Cleveland at Princeton, N. J., today celebrated his sixty eight birthday. During the day a few friends called to pay their respects. The former President also received a number of messages and telegrams of congratulation from friends and admirers. His health is reported to be very good.

The cruiser Washington was launched at 12:09 o'clock this afternoon at the yards of the New York Shipbuilding Co., at Camden, N. J., under most favorable weather conditions. Miss Helen Wilson, daughter of ex-Senator Wilson, of Washington, sponsor performed the baptismal ceremony in a most graceful manner.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Alexandria and Washington Ferry.

Another movement looking to the re-establishment of the ferry service between Alexandria and Washington has been inaugurated, and, from all that can be learned, the enterprise is destined to be crowned with success. It is asserted that some time during the summer two modern ferry boats will be running between the two cities. The charter of the Washington and Alexandria Ferry Company will, it is said, be secured at an early date by W. B. Hibbs, of Washington, and the announcement is made that a line of ferryboats will be installed as soon as possible. All of the stock of the company will be held in Washington, although business men of Alexandria will be expected to purchase some of the bonds to be issued, and it is understood that numbers have signified their purpose to do so, the banking institutions especially having made liberal responses. Two steamboats will be used by the new company, and it is proposed to operate on a half-hour schedule in the summer months. It is calculated that not more than twenty minutes will be required to make the trip from one city to the other. These vessels will be fitted up for the transportation of freight on the lower deck, and will carry passengers in the upper saloon. They will be of the double propeller type, and will be ready for service, it is said, shortly after the wharves are repaired in Washington and Alexandria. Bonds to the sum of $250,000 will be issued and $250,000 in stock. The money derived from the sale of bonds will be invested in the two new steamboats and in repairing the wharves.

During the past three months Mr. Clarence Leadbeater and several other enterprising citizens have devoted much of their time towards the re-establishment of the ferry line, but it was not until yesterday afternoon that it was definitely known that the movement on foot in Washington and this city to that end had been crowned with success.

This announcement is hailed with great satisfaction by the entire community, especially the business portion which has been subjected to much inconvenience in transporting goods to and from Washington during recent months.

It is reported in business circles that Mr. Hibbs is acting for the Washington Traction Company, which desires to operate the ferry in conjunction with its street railway lines. If this be so, and there are reasons to suppose it is, transportation from Alexandria to any part of Washington, it is said, will be rendered easy and at a moderate cost. That the convenience thus afforded will be appreciated is evident, as in future the discomforts incident to congestions between the two cities will be eliminated.

The Westminster League.

The Westminster League has the following programme for its social meeting next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock: Piano solo, Miss Violet Proctor; solo, Miss Ficklin; violin solo, Mr. Clarence Howell; solo, Mrs. R. Lee Field; piano solo, Miss Brooke; recitation, Miss Stansbury; solo, Mr. Frank Slaymaker; solo, Miss Newton; piano solo, Miss Ficklin; solo, Miss Pierpoint; recitation, Miss Ewing; solo, Miss Hulfish; piano solo, Miss Ewing. With such an attractive programme the social meeting ought to be well attended.

Want an Extra Man.

It is understood that the Board of Fire Wardens, upon the application of the different fire companies in the city, will recommend to the City Council that they employ an extra man in the department. The object of the recommendation is to give each of the paid employees in the department one day's holiday during the week. This additional man, if employed, will not only have to understand the care of horses, but will have to be a competent engineer.

Hibernian Banquet.

As is their custom, Alexandria Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians, last night celebrated St. Patrick's Day by an informal luncheon in the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall, on Duke street. The luncheon was prepared by the woman's auxiliary, and was successful in every particular. During the evening impromptu speeches were made by the members of the organization and their guests.

Wine Thieves.

Early yesterday morning the proprietor of the Fleischmann Hotel discovered that his premises had been invaded during the previous night and two cases of wine stolen. The affair was reported to police headquarters and Officers Smith and Bettis went to work on the case and subsequently arrested two colored individuals named Henry Jackson and John Bryant as being the thieves. They were brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning and the evidence against them being conclusive, they were sent to jail for 60 days. In the examination of the case it was shown that Jackson, Bryant and some of their friends had drank thirty bottles of the wine, valued at $30. They had held orgies in several places in the city, the last being in the northwestern section.

River Notes.

The balmy spring weather has brightened conditions on the river front, and there has been more animation during the past two or three days than for several months past. The river steamers are carrying large quantities of freight and many passengers.

The British bark Alexander Black is at sea bound to Alexandria from Buenos Ayres, Argentina, South America, with a cargo of bone.

The U. S. dispatch boat Dolphin passed down the river yesterday.

Cobb Point Bar light station, on the Potomac river, opposite Colonial Beach, has been somewhat damaged by the ice.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Samuel Mills, colored, arrested by Officer Allen charged with vulgar language, was fined $2.

Harry Jackson, colored, arrested by Officers Smith and Bettis charged with stealing liquor from the Hotel Fleischmann, was sent to jail for 60 days.

John Bryant, colored, charged with the same offence, was given 60 days in jail.

Thomas Stanton, colored, arrested by Officer Allen charged with gambling, was fined $2.

James Burke, arrested by Officers Lyles and Allen charged with being drunk in the street, was dismissed.

The Fishery.

The prevailing spring weather is gradually coaxing fish into the river. Shad are now caught in Chesapeake Bay and some herring are proceeding up the river to fresh water. A jag which had been caught at St. George's Island was on the fish benches in market this morning. They were being sold at 60 cents per dozen. Seinehaulers will begin operations within a few days. Large numbers of yellow perch and black bass are being landed within a short distance of Alexandria.

The Market.

There was a slight increase in the offering of country produce in market this morning, and prices had weakened. Butter was selling at 25a35 cents a pound, and eggs could be purchased as low as 16½ cents per dozen. There was but a meagre offering of vegetables. The fish benches had larger displays than any time this season, but prices of all varieties were high. The hucksters and butchers had fine supplies of everything which enters into a larder.

Funerals.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary H. Atkinson took place this afternoon from the residence. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Stump. The funeral was attended by a number of relatives and friends.

Meeting Postponed.

The executive committee of the Commuter's Association, of which Mr. T. H. Netherland is president, and Mr. O. P. Angelo secretary, has deemed it wise to postpone for a short time the regular annual meeting, in order to have the opportunity to consider at such meeting the improvement in transportation facilities which they are assured will be accomplished before the first of May.

That Sewer.

To the Chairman City Council, Alexandria city:

Dear Sir—I read in the Alexandria Gazette a bill which is before City Council to sewer this end of the town by using Hooff's run as an outlet, and I wish to say this much in regard to the matter, I am opposed to it if that sewer is to empty in the run anywhere between King and Duke streets, and my reason is this: We have all the water that drains through the northeastern and western part of the town to contend with now (right here at the Stone Bridge) and when the sewer empties in the run we will be either washed out or stunk out, so you see we cannot afford to have our property ruined for some one else's benefit. I am in hearty accord with any plan which will lessen the flow of water in this neighborhood, but please give us something better. All the drainage from three streets now comes in here which ought not to be. Many times during the summer it is almost impossible to pass on account of so much water. Hoping your honorable body may do the best for your constituency. I remain yours,

F. L. CORNWELL,

A Small Boy's Invention.

Sir Hiram Maxim began to invent almost as soon as he could lisp. When but a small boy he invented a sort of sextant made of wood, with sights, a piece of thread with a bullet at the end, and an indicator for the thread to swing along. On a dark night he took his instrument outside, and while he sighted it to the north star his little sister read the indicator. "Forty-five, Hiram," she called out. This meant they were living in 45 degrees north latitude. The observation proved to be perfectly accurate.

Poor Perkins!

"There's Perkins—you know Perkins—entered into an agreement with his wife soon after their marriage twenty years ago that whenever either lost temper or stormed the other was to keep silence."

"And the scheme worked?"

"Admirably. Perkins has kept silence for twenty years."

Doesn't Care For It.

"When I git personally acquainted," said the original philosopher, "with some of the fellers that the wimmen folks goes crazy over it cures me of ever wantin' to be popular with the wimmen folks."—Baltimore American.

The Peepers.

Mrs. Buggins—Those busy neighbors next door who are always peeping through the blinds have an awful lot to say about their family tree. Mr. Buggins—Huh! I'll bet it's a rubber plant.—Philadelphia Record.

Suspicious.

Estelle—I shuddered when he proposed. Bertha—Was he so awkward? Estelle—Oh, no. He did it so well.—Detroit Free Press.

Some people are cheerful because their blunders bother other people instead of themselves.—Atchison Globe.

Oh, That Boy!

"I'd cheerfully lend you my whistle if I had one, Charlie," said the curate, "but I haven's such a thing."

"Well, papa says you have," replied Charlie, "and that you wet it a dozen times a day."—New York Times.

More Than a Match For Him.

Tom—Somebody ought to warn Mrs. Prettiface that that fellow Smirks, who's paying attention to her, is a miserable flirt. Jim—Hem! Better warn Smirks. Mrs. Prettiface is a widow.

"Pa, what is repartee?"

"Oh, merely an insult with its dress suit on, my son."—Puck.

To some the past gives only regret, the present sorrow, the future fear.—Lambert.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Pleasant and Harmless.

Don't drug the stomach to cure a cough. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the mucus, draws the inflammation out of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, heals and soothes and cures. A quick cure for Croup and Whooping Cough. Sold by all druggists.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.
